
Dr. Gates called the meeting to order at 3:30 p.m.

Council reviewed the courses that were tabled from the March 10, 2003 GEAC Meeting.

Courses Requesting New General Education Designations

ENVR 4573 - Ethical Issues in Agriculture – Denied request for H designation - Reviewers noted that the course takes an empirical approach to the topic of ethics, thus the course does not meet the humanities requirements. Course does not meet Humanities Criteria One, ‘Courses with the H designation concentrate on the nature and development of the ideas, beliefs, arts, and literatures that animate different cultures rather than technical aspects of the arts.’

BIOL 3273 – Medical Botany: Therapeutic, Psychoactive, and Toxic Impacts of Plants on Humans – Request for N denied. Request was tabled during March 10, 2003 GEAC meeting. Course information provided does not indicate how the course meets the criteria and goals for the “N” designation.

SOC 4463 – Technology and Society – Request for S designation denied. Request was tabled during the March 10, 2003 GEAC meeting. The GEAC requested additional information regarding how the course satisfies all of the criteria and goals for the S designation was not received prior to the March 10 meeting.
