Equal Opportunity

409 General Academic Building/405.744.7607

OSU is committed to maintaining a learning environment that is free from discriminatory conduct based on race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, pregnancy, status as a parent, national origin, disability, age, family medical history or genetic information, political affiliation, military service, protected veteran status or other non-merit based factors. OSU does not discriminate on the basis of sex in its educational programs or activities.

Mental Health Resources

Being a college student can be stressful. Adding a struggle with mental health can make school feel even more overwhelming, but we want you to know you are not alone.

Visit <https://wellness.okstate.edu/student-wellness/resources.html> for a list of resources available.

Basic Needs Assistance

<https://campuslife.okstate.edu/student-support/basicneeds.html>

OSU has a wide range of partnerships, pantries, and resources to help students meet their basic needs.
